Cape Estates is a property development group focusing on residential, retirement and commercial property development in George, Cape Town and Mossel Bay. Apart from high rise developments all other residential and retirement developments are security estates. Our target market is for the middle and high-income earners. Our flagship development is the Kraaibosch & Welgelegen development in George and the latest addition to our development portfolio is the new duplex housing development of Kraaibosch Ridge in George and Renosterbos our mix residential and retirement estate in Mossel Bay.

With this partnership our clients not only benefit from beautiful listing photography but also 'best in class' Internet marketing technology for real estate.

The company focus mainly on residential developments but three years ago started with the development of retirement housing due to the specific needs of retirees with added benefits of an assisted living and/or frail care facility. Cape Estates delivers either a finished residential unit or on a plot and build basis to cater for specific needs of its customers.

The company employs over 450 people and its target is to develop over 120 housing units per year between Cape Town, Mossel bay and George. The company offers a unique service to clients from start to finish for any housing dream. Although the company have partnered with the most well-known real estate company Pam Golding, we also have our own inhouse sales consultants. Our inhouse architect and project managers ensure that we listen and cater to all our client's needs and ensure that a quality product is delivered each and every time.

The list of developments of the Cape Estates group includes:

George

Kraaibosch Estate

Kraaibosch Manor

Kraaibosch Retirement Village (75 full title units built and sold within 2 years and excludes a 39-assisted living complex with a 19-bed frail care facility)

Welgelegen Estate

Welgelegen Village

Welgelegen Views

Kraaibosch Ridge (a new Duplex development for first home buyers in George)
